

MiniBio
Marcial A. G. Suarez

marcialgsuarez@gmail.com; marcialsuarez@id.uff.br

Marcial A. G. Suarez holds a Ph.D. in Political Science and professor of Political Science and International Relations at the Fluminense Federal University (Universidade Federal Fluminense – UFF), in Niterói, Rio de Janeiro. He is a former research fellow at the Belfer Center for Science and International Affairs at the Harvard Kennedy School (2006-2007) and was a senior fellow at the Maria Sibylla Merian Centre for Conviviality and Inequality in Latin America (MECILA) in São Paulo (2024). His research focuses on the dynamics of violence from a comparative perspective, with a particular interest in modes of criminal governance in Latin America. He has edited the books Power Dynamics and Regional Security in Latin America (2017, Palgrave Macmillan), Brazil in the Contemporary Political Context: Challenges and Perspectives (2021), and International Politics in the Americas: Challenges and Tensions (2022), the latter two published by the Fluminense Federal University Press, Violencias y Cuidados: Aproximaciones a una Relación Ambivalente”, Mecila/CLACSO (2025), , and State Lethality, Organized Crime, and Criminal Governance as a Political Agenda in Latin America by Lexington Publishers (2026). Marcial Suarez coordinates the International Politics Analysis Group at the Fluminense Federal University, focusing on issues related to the study of violence in its various forms and at different levels, whether local, national, or international. Marcial Suarez is currently Visiting Researcher at the University of Cologne as part of MECILA project.